TRIBUTE SERIES

2008 CABERNET SAUVIGNON

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

The 2008 Harvest had quite low yields and as a result the wines produced all possessed intense, concentrated fruit. In years like this it is critical to avoid over-ripe characters, this Cabernet is an exceptional wine, displaying its robust nature while maintaining balance structure. It is a full-bodied style with rich, ripe blackcurrant and black berry fruits, balanced with spicy oak and a firm, grippy finish, very typical of great examples of this variety. A true Bordeaux style, this is a wine that requires food dishes with equally resilient flavors, such as roasts and juicy steaks.
